PRAYER MATTERS

Compiled by Lieut-Colonel David Phillips

June is the month for roses.

Monday 17 June – The walled garden at Mottisfont House in Hampshire is one of the most famous Rose gardens in the World and home to the National Collection of old fashioned roses. A breathtaking display of over 500 varieties await. Roses symbolise beauty and love. Our prayer is that the love of God will be present within our daily living. Read Isaiah 35 v 1 -2. (Song 717 'Let the beauty of Jesus be seen in me')

Tuesday 18 June – Robert Burns is famous for a song about roses. 'My love is like a red red rose ... and I will love thee still my dear 'til all the seas gang dry'. Kenneth McKellar's version of the song is my favourite. Listen to the song if you can. Pray for the love of God to be evident in our homes on a daily basis and pray for any newlywed couples you know. Read Matthew 6 v 25 - 34. (Song 44 'Morning has broken')

Wednesday 19 June – Do you know anyone called Rose? I remember a lady we worked alongside in London, Major Rose Wall married to Albert Wall. Rose was a lovely gracious Christian, always smiling and daily witnessed her faith through her actions of kindness. You will know of people who have influenced your living. Let us pray and thank God today for those spiritual 'Roses' who continue to shine for the Lord. Read 1 Corinthians 13 v 13. (Song 476 verse 2 'Songs of salvation are sounding')

Thursday 20 June – What is your favourite colour of rose? Personally speaking I like the yellow rose which represents joy, friendship, delight and gladness. They tell me that people who choose yellow roses tend to be easy going, friendly and happy. The most popular of roses is the red rose, symbol of beauty, passion, desire and romantic love. Whatever colour we choose let us try to be Christlike in all we do, emulating His beauty and love. Read 1 Peter 3 v 3-4. (Song 354 'Beautiful Jesus, bright star of the earth')

Friday 21 June – You will recall the phrase: 'Seeing the world through rose coloured spectacles'. This refers to individuals who have a tendency to see everything in a positive light, albeit a potentially unrealistic light. The phrase originated in 1840 and is accepted to be from the novel 'Tom Brown at Oxford'. As Christians I am of the opinion that we need to be positive, revealing happiness, life satisfaction, purpose and meaning in life. Pray for the Christian church to be positive in action. Read Phillipians 4 v 4-9. (Song 948 'They bid me choose an easier path')

Saturday 22 June – Roses have thorns as a natural defence. Thorns protect the leaves and flowers from being eaten by animals that are attracted to their enticing fragrance and taste. As Christians we need protection from evil influences all around us. 'He will guard you against the evil one'. Pray for vulnerable people to be protected as they face temptation. Read 2 Thessalonians 3 v 3. (Song 749 'Father, hear the prayer we offer')

Sunday 23 June – Roses are used to produce perfume and roses commonly used are the Turkish Rose, the Damask Rose and Rose Certifalia (the hundred leafed rose) grown in the South of France and considered to produce the highest quality rose absolute. We read in 2 Corinthians 'for we are one to God the pleasing aroma of Christ among those who are being saved'. Pray that all Christians will be a strong influence for good everywhere. Reaad Psalm 141 v 2. (Song 593 'In my life, Lord')
