CORPS ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS

Sunday 9th June is our Corps anniversary. Our guest leaders are Majors Martin and Fiona Sayer. This day is being celebrated in different ways

10.30am Meeting led by Majors Martin and Fiona Sayer

This will be followed by a Faith Lunch. We invite you to contribute to this lunch – bring some finger food for the table to share with others.

A Praise Meeting will take place at 2pm. This will include a time of recognition for all who volunteer within our Corps

Please come along and join with us for any or all the above events taking place on the 9th June.

There will be no 4pm discussion group taking place on 9th June.

FOREVER PART OF THE FAMILY

What do you call your family network when to Christ you belong?

If the answer was said to be blood ties the person would be wrong.

For families can be made from something else other than earthly bonds,

It is the family in which we worship

And once again celebrate in prayer and with songs

OUR PRAYER

There are many of our Corps folk, family and friends that are currently going through difficult times. Help us to support them by placing prayer request in our prayer book which is used at every prayer meeting taking place at the Corps.

PRAYER SUBJECTS

Continue to pray for those in our Corps who are having treatment for Cancer, those who have recently had surgery and those still waiting for appointments to work out the best way forward to improve their health

Prayer for our staff in the charity shops. Changes have now taken place and staff may have new positions and responsibilities to undertake. Pray also for the volunteers as they get used to the changes that have taken place

Pray for the Corps Anniversary celebrations taking place. Pray that the volunteers will attend the praise meeting where recognition for the work they do will take place.

The wars taking place in Ukraine, Israel-Gaza war, For Iran as they go through change after the death of their president
