PRAYER MATTERS

Shared by Anwyn Mingay

Monday 8 July – Dear Lord, in this a new day and holiday month, may all those who visit Bournemouth find rest and fun during their break, and pause to see the beauty in the world. We pray for all hoteliers who will serve the public and for all who care for this environment in gardens, roads and businesses. Amen.

Tuesday 9 July – Loving Lord, we remember all those who serve in ministry and bring before you all officers in Centers and Corps that they may be strengthened and given support and friendship in their role. We pray for all who are single, those with childcare needs and any who feel unwell. Amen.

Wednesday 10 July – Dear Lord, our country is facing change and a new government. We are moving into an unknown future but we entrust our society to you and pray that all members of parliament may work with integrity and honesty and according to well informed minds might build a compassionate world. Amen.

Thursday 11 July – Dear Lord, our public life seems full of criticism and often small incidents are blown out of proportion in order to cast blame. Our newspapers appear to thrive on finding faults in public figures and lose a proportionate appreciation of all that is good. Help us as who are Christians to spread joy, to trust you and to live in a different kingdom. Amen.

Friday 12 July – Dear Lord, we pray for an outpouring of your Spirit in our country that we may cease from worshipping ourselves and that your Church may be empowered to shine your light bravely and joyfully. Amen.

Saturday 13 July – We pray for the King, the Queen, for William and Kate and for all those of the royal family who serve this country. We pray for their health, their welfare, their spiritual lives and their influence amongst us. Amen.

Sunday 14 July – Lord, ‘the soul at dawn is like sparrow on a rooftop, turning itself towards the Spirit of Love’. May we worship today by turning towards you O Christ, and receive the renewing glow of your being. Amen.
