Harvest of Thanksgiving Psalm 65 v 11

You crown the year with Your goodness, And Your paths drip with abundance.

Summer isn't always quite the way it's meant to be
With cloudless skies and butterflies and a picnic by the sea
But don't despair to see dark clouds Or rainstorms passing by
For every shower feeds the earth And helps the plants grow high.
Let's give thanks for every day Albeit pearl or plain
For not a rose would smell as sweet without the kiss of rain.
Words written by Margaret Ignall

PRAYER SUBJECTS

There are members of our fellowship who are in hospital or have been in hospital recently and are still far well. Do remember them in prayer. Other members of our fellowship are unable to come to worship with us due to their health concerns. Pray that God's Love and grace will be their sufficiency at this time of need.

Pray for Birmingham Citadel Sections as they prepare to share with us an afternoon of Praise through music at our Harvest celebrations.

Promotion to Glory of Soldier Dennis Hill. Let us remember the relatives of Dennis Hill. Pray that God's compassion will surround them and they will be at peace over the coming days.

Recent Floods in the Country

Remember those who have had damage to property over the past few weeks.

Pray for the population of Lebanon affected by recent bombings. Continue to remember all countries at war, around the world,
